Where the area which it is proposed to subdivide is of such a shape, or the design of an adjoining subdivision is such, that in his opinion a variation from such measurements is justified, the approving officer may approve a plan showing such variation;
- (c) Each lot or parcel resulting from the subdivision abuts on a public highway along one full side of said lot;
- (d) The approving officer is satisfied that the subdivision design is suited to the configuration of the land in and about the area which it is proposed to subdivide and to the road plan of adjoining subdivisions;

11. (1) The Inspector may withhold a permit for or order the removal of any structure when he deems it necessary in the interests of health or safety; the Inspector, in his order for removal, shall name a time by which such structure shall be removed and give the reasons for requiring said removal.

(2) The Inspector shall not issue a permit for any work on a building or structure constructed or to be constructed on or moved on to a parcel of land smaller than is required by these regulations unless said parcel was on record before the date of these regulations or is part of a subdivision plan regularly approved by the approving officer.

12. If a permittee has not commenced to exercise his rights under the permit within six months from date of issue, the permit shall expire.

13. Where a person obtains a permit, he shall carry out the construction or moving in accordance with the terms on which the permit is based, and not otherwise, and shall complete exterior finish according to an approved plan within eighteen months of the issuance of the building permit.

14. The Inspector shall have power to enter any building or premises in the performance of his duties.

15. If any person is erecting or has erected a building or structure, or is installing or has installed plumbing or a sewage-disposal system, or is doing any work, without a permit as required herein, or that is not in accordance with the plans and specifications on which the permit is based, the Inspector may:—

(c) Accessory buildings located in a rear yard, and uses customarily incident to the above uses; provided that a building to shelter domestic animals shall be situated not less than one hundred feet from any well, spring, or creek, and as far from a dwelling on the same lot and the nearest dwelling of any adjacent lot as the shape and size of the lot on which it is situated permits.

(2) The keeping of animals or fowl for breeding or commercial purposes where such use exists at the date of the coming into effect of these regulations may be continued as a non-conforming use and shall be subject to Regulation 22 hereof, but no similar use shall be established hereafter.

- (e) Two side yards shall be provided, each of which shall be not less in width than ten per cent of the width of the site or five feet, whichever is greater; provided that no side yard need exceed ten feet in width; and further provided that where a building is not served by a side or rear lane, one side yard shall be at least ten feet in width and unobstructed and open to the sky;
- (f) On a corner lot at the rear of which are lots fronting on the flanking street, the yard paralleling and adjacent to the flanking street shall extend the full depth of the lot and shall be not less than twenty-five feet wide, unless otherwise permitted by the Board of Appeal and the consent of the Minister of Highways, in which case it shall be not less than twelve and a half feet wide;
- (g) A front yard shall be provided not less than twenty-five feet in depth.

19. The height limitations prescribed herein shall not apply to chimneys, towers, and spires occupying less than seven per cent of the site area, nor shall they apply to windmills, silos, grain-elevators, and similar structures.

(2) Side yards shall be unoccupied and unobstructed by buildings.

21. (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of Regulation 18 hereof, a tourist camp may be established in the area subject to the approval of the Board of Appeal, but no part shall be used as a permanent residence unless it complies with the height, yard, and area requirements of said Regulation 18.

(2) No soil or gravel shall be removed from, or garbage or industrial waste deposited on, any lands in the area without the consent of the Board of Appeal, which may state the terms and conditions on which the consent is granted.

(3) Where permission to conduct uses as referred to in this regulation, or where an appeal under the provisions of Regulation 23, has been granted by the Board of Appeal, the applicant shall commence to exercise the rights so granted within six months of the date of the granting thereof or such rights shall expire.

22. (1) Any use of land or buildings contrary to the provisions of Regulation 18, but which existed prior to the coming into effect of these regulations, may be continued, unless in the opinion of the Medical Health Officer and the Inspector such continuance is prejudicial to the public health or safety.

(2) No non-conforming use which has been discontinued for thirty days shall be renewed.

(3) The lawful use of a building existing at the time of the coming into effect of these regulations, although such use does not conform to the provisions of Regulation 18, may be extended throughout the building, but no structural alterations shall be made nor shall the non-conforming use be carried beyond the limits of the existing building.

23. (1) Except in the case of subdivision requirements in respect of which provision for appeal is made in the "Land Registry Act," any person who considers that any refusal to grant him a permit, or any order issued to him under these regulations, will cause him undue hardship shall have a right of appeal by way of a hearing before the Board of Appeal.

(2) Any person exercising the right of appeal shall file with the Secretary of the Board of Appeal within ten days of the giving of any decision under the foregoing regulations a written notice of appeal therefrom, which shall state clearly the grounds upon which the appeal is made. 24. (1) The Board of Appeal shall be the Board of Appeal established for the Village of Campbell River in connection with the zoning by-law of said village.

(2) In the event of the death, resignation, or removal from office of any member of the Board, and until the appointment of a successor to such member, the remaining members shall constitute the Board.

26. The Chairman of the Board of Appeal shall have authority to administer oaths to the witnesses on the appeal.

27. In disposing of appeals the Board of Appeal may make such relaxations of these regulations, or of any order issued pursuant to these regulations, as the Board of Appeal considers necessary to ensure substantial justice, except that a change of classification of any district or part thereof or the permitting of a new use may be made only by the Minister of Municipal Affairs on the recommendation of the Board of Appeal.

28. The decision in writing of a majority of the members of the Board of Appeal attending a regularly called meeting shall be the decision of the Board, and the Board shall not be required to readjudicate the same appeal on the same set of facts.

5. Nothing in these regulations shall require the removal, alteration, or abandonment of, nor prevent continuance of the use or occupancy of, a building existing prior to the coming into effect of these regulations, unless in the opinion of the Inspector the building or its use constitutes a hazard to safety, or in the opinion of the Medical Health Officer the building or its use constitutes a menace to public health, or the building is in a dilapidated or neglected condition.

6. The approving officer, as defined in the "Land Registry Act," shall not approve of a plan of subdivision that does not conform to the requirements of Regulation 7 and 8 hereof without the written consent of the Inspector, except where provision for the relaxation of said regulations is made herein.

7. No land shall be subdivided into lots or parcels for building purposes unless:—

(a) A method of sewage-disposal satisfactory to the Medical Health Officer is possible for each lot;

(b) Each lot in a residence class district is at least seven thousand five hundred square feet in area and, in addition, is at least sixty feet in width and at least one hundred feet in depth, or in a commercial or industrial district is at least thirty feet in width and at least one hundred feet in depth. - (c) Each lot or parcel resulting from the subdivision abuts on a public highway along one full side of said lot;
- (d) The approving officer is satisfied that the subdivision design is suited to the configuration of the land in and about the area which it is proposed to subdivide and to the road plan of adjoining subdivisions;

- (f) Road allowances are not less than the width prescribed in Schedule A hereof for the road category in which they are placed by the approving officer; and in the case of an existing road alongside the proposed subdivision which is of less width than prescribed for its category as aforesaid, the subdivision plan is designed to provide at least half the difference between the existing width and such prescribed width; provided that where highway plans or other conditions require a greater width, as indicated by the approving officer, provision for such width shall be made in a similar manner;
- (g) All road allowances are graded and gravelled and all appurtenant works done as required by the approving officer;
- (h) All structures of any kind, including fences, are removed from the road allowances;
